

The Norwegian School in London

Founded 1982

Optimum duo mundi

Home School Agreement

We believe that success is achieved through a strong partnership between our school, their families and the students themselves. By working together and setting high expectations we can help our students to reach their potential.

Therefore the school undertakes to:

- Provide a safe and purposeful educational environment.
- Provide a curriculum which fulfills the Norwegian 'gjeldende læreplan' as well as using 'London as our classroom' as much as possible.
- Contact parents promptly about concerns that might affect students' work or behavior, i.e. Code of Conduct.
- Send home assessments to show progress twice during the year and invite parents for Parent Conferences.
- Set, mark and monitor homework.

The Parent/s undertakes to:

- Ensure that students attend school each day, are punctual and properly equipped for the school day.
- Support their child in all areas of the curriculum to help them achieve their best.
- Notify school of any absence.
- Give support to the school's policies and guidelines for behavior, i.e. Code of Conduct.
- Attend parent meetings.
- Notify the school if you have concerns that might affect your child's work or behavior.

The Student undertakes to:

- Attend school every day and on time.
- Work hard in all areas of the curriculum.
- Behave responsibly and follow Code of Conduct.
- Treat everyone at school how they would wish to be treated.
- Bring the correct books and equipment to lessons.
- Treat their own property responsibly and respect other people's property.